Ayer's Hair Vigor

A gentleman residing at Dunedin, N.Z., writes under date Jan. 7, 1907:

"It is with gratitude I write you that I have now a splendid head of hair, both thick and very soft, all owing to my having used your wonderful Hair Vigor. I was almost bald headed before I used the Hair Vigor. I still use it once a day, rubbing it well into the roots of the hair. I used to wear a skull-cap, and I am very grateful to Ayer's Hair Vigor for the improvement it has made in my look."

Be warned in time. Use Ayer's Hair Vigor and preserve your youth.

SPORTS

SHOULD HAVE LET FLYNN HAVE A BIT

SAN FRANCISCO, December 22.—Sam Langford, the "Boston Bone-breaker," as he was dubbed last night by Milly Jordan, is likely to be a mere spectator at most of the fights he attends in the near future. When he knocked Jim Flynn cold in the first round last night, he added about nineteen feet of solid stone wall to the color line that has been separating him from a chance at a purse almost ever since the public began to realize his ability as a fighter. It was so easy for Langford that he didn't know he had been in a fight. He went back to his corner and sat down and chatted with the crowd about him, as if he just walked out and knocked an apple off the fence post.

Flynn, the negro at the start. The chocolate demon was cool and as light on his feet as a feather. He waited for Flynn, blocked most of his blows and met his rush with the terrific body blows such as the fans here have not seen in many a day. The fierce exchange of blows gave the negro the advantage every time. It was swift work; it could not have lasted long in any event. The end came with startling suddenness. Flynn went in with his head down. Langford met him with a little more vigor perhaps than before. It was as if he had been feeling out his man and had decided where to put in the final blow. Flynn led, but failed to do any damage. Before the freeman regained his balance the great sledge hammer right arm of the negro had swung on the might right hook that went squarely to the point of the jaw. Flynn stopped like he had been shot. In the fractional part of a second that he remained on his feet a vicious straight arm jab with the left landed on the same spot and the fight was over.

If Langford had any of the instincts of the money-making fighter he would have let Flynn remain in the ring for a few rounds at least. He would have permitted himself to be scared up a bit, and then he would have been able to make some more engagements. But he is just a natural born fighter and he went to it from the jump. He came out laughing.

FREDDIE WELSH IS AUSTRALIAN GIVES MATCHED WITH MURPHY HARD BATTLE

LOS ANGELES, December 23.—Freddie Welsh, the lightweight who recently defeated Abe Attell in this city, has been matched to fight 10 rounds with George Mensie at McCarey's pavilion on January 5. Welsh is guaranteed $1,000.

SAN DIEGO, December 23.—Much to the disappointment of a majority of the large crowd that witnessed the O'Keefe-Field fight last night the referee called it a draw at the end of the twentieth round. Both men were on their feet at the close and there was little choice between them for strength. Field was pretty badly cut about the face and appeared to have stopped more blows than his opponent but was right after his man to the last bell.

THOMPSON TO BOX CORBETT

NEW ORLEANS, December 23.—"Cyclone" Johnny Thompson will be matched to box Young Corbett here on the evening of January 14. The event is set for twenty-five rounds.

"TRUCK" EAGAN CHANGES HANDS

SAN FRANCISCO, December 21.—The Oakland baseball club this morning received notice of the acceptance by the St. Paul club of the American association of the offer of "Truck" Eagan for Catcher Noonan of that club. It has been known ever since the close of the season that it was the purpose of the local club to dispose of Eagan, as the latter failed to play up to form the past year. It is believed, however, that Truck will come again all right if taken away from old associations. In 1907 he led this league at the bat and has always been a dangerous stick.

Naturally the local fans are interested in the man secured in the trade for Eagan. Noonan, during 1906 and 1907, played with the Chicago Nationals and the St. Louis Nationals. Previous to that he was with the St. Paul club, and the latter bought him back from St. Louis last year. He is rated as a first class backstop and he has also played on first a part of the time. He comes well-recommended both as a backstop and as a batsman. He has always hit well and should help out the locals in this respect. Frequently in the games in which he was not playing at St. Louis he would be put in to bat for other men in the pinches.

APPENDIX IS OF SOME USE. LONDON, Dec. 18.—The vermiform appendix, which hitherto has been looked upon as a useless and dangerous organ, has at last justified its existence, according to a statement made by a surgeon at the West London Hospital.

"One of the greatest difficulties of medicine," said this surgeon, "is to apply medicines to the lower intestines. The appendix has been made use of as a short cut by which we can and material point at issue, free from all bias, prejudice and partisanship. The position, as well as the testimony, of such witnesses, thus necessarily fair and impartial, has due weight and credit given it by the jury.

The present method is unsatisfactory and fails to meet the requirements of justice. Experts called by the respective parties must necessarily be more or less partisan, and this fact, coupled with the usual conflict in their testimony, tends to destroy the force of the testimony of each witness. Should the legislature not deem it proper to authorize the courts to appoint expert witnesses when needed, the appointment of an impartial lunacy commission might be provided for as is done in some of the states.

EXEMPTIONS FROM ESTATES OF DECEDENTS.

With regard to that portion of the personal estate of a decedent, consisting of all the household goods and furniture and other personal property or money to the value or amount of $500, I would suggest that such portion of the estate be exempt from administration when the decedent leaves surviving him a widow or minor children, and that the same vest immediately in the widow, if any, otherwise in the minor children, free from all claims of creditors of the decedent, as well as free from all costs of administration or in any proceeding instituted to establish the fact that the law of administration does not apply.

The statute should be so framed as to also include the minor children of a deceased widow.

Should the surviving widow not be the mother of the minor children of the deceased, then she should not be permitted to claim under this statute only on condition that she permit such minor children to remain with her as her own children and have and enjoy the same rights as if they were her own children.

CLERKS SUPREME AND CIRCUIT COURTS.

With the view of securing better service and a more thorough and systematic arrangement in the work of the clerks of the Supreme and Circuit Courts, I would therefore suggest and respectfully urge an absolute and total separation of the offices of the clerks of the Supreme and First Circuit Courts. This separation would be had without any additional cost to the public so far as the clerical force is concerned. The change would increase the clerical force in the Circuit Court by one clerk, with a corresponding decrease in the Supreme Court by one clerk.

INHERITANCE TAX.

Section 1, Act 102, Laws of 1905, should be so amended as to include, not only "All property which shall pass by will or by the intestate laws of this Territory," but also all property within this Territory which may pass by the will of a nonresident, or by the interstate laws of any state, territory or country.

JOINT AND SEVERAL OBLIGATIONS.

Relative to joint, as well as joint and several obligations, ex contractu, I would suggest that appropriate legislative provision be made whereby the survivor and the personal representatives of a deceased party to such obligation may be joined either as plaintiffs or defendants in an action for the enforcement of such obligations.

BONDS OF EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS AND GUARDIANS.

For the better protection of estates I would suggest the enactment of a statute requiring all bonds of executors, administrators, trustees and guardians, to be signed by an approved and responsible incorporated company as surety for the true and faithful performance of all duties for which such bonds shall be required and given. Provided, however, that not less than two natural persons (freeholders) may be accepted as sureties upon justifying under oath in double the amount of the penal sum named in the bond.

Natural persons, by reason of the possibility of their death and the settlement and distribution of their estates and the danger of their insolvency before settlement may be had of an estate, renders such sureties unsafe as compared with a responsible corporation.

I would further suggest that a reasonable sum as premium on such bonds signed by a surety company be paid out of the estate, the additional protection to the estate justifying this expenditure.

LAND OF DECEASED, INTESTATE.

I would also suggest the advisability of a statute providing for administration of an estate of a deceased person (intestate) where such estate consists solely of land. This at least would complete the chain of title and determine who the heirs of the deceased were.

CODE AND CODE PROCEDURE.

I submit that it is proper and would facilitate the administration of justice if the Legislature would make some provision for the adoption of a complete and systematic code of laws and procedure for this Territory, such as are in force in the so-called "Code states." To this end I would suggest the appointment of a Code Commission with full powers to arrange and fully annotate the existing laws, prepare and suggest such amendments and repeals as in the judgment of the Commission it might deem necessary to conform the same to the constitution and laws of the United States, and to facilitate their administration; also to prepare and suggest such additional laws as in the judgment of the Commission may be required to form a complete and harmonious body of laws, such as a civil, criminal, probate and political code, and a code of civil, criminal, probate and political procedure.

SERVICE OF PROCESS.

I submit that the law with regard to issuing and service of summons and other process should be amended to the effect that the declaration, petition or other initial pleading, when filed shall not be taken from the files or custody of the clerk for service or otherwise, but service shall be made by delivering to the defendant a true copy of such summons or process to which shall be annexed a true copy of the declaration, petition or other initial pleading, which copies shall be certified to by the clerk. The officer making such service may make due return thereon on a separate paper showing all the essential facts, which return shall be duly filed with the clerk. Process to run to all parts of the Territory.

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE.

With regard to the marriage contract, I would suggest that the statute (Sec. 2207, R. L., Act 42, Laws of 1907) be amended making it necessary for the male at the time of contracting the marriage to be at least twenty years of age, and the female at least eighteen years of age; that the license for the purpose of marrying shall be obtained at least ten days before the marriage; that the officer issuing the license shall immediately thereafter give public notice thereof; that the officer shall not knowingly issue a license when either of the parties have been divorced until six months thereafter; that the marriage of parties within six months after either of them have been divorced, except a remarriage of the same parties, shall render such marriage absolutely void; that the decree of divorce shall expressly prohibit the parties from contracting any marriage with third parties within six months from date thereof.

The violation of the statute (as thus amended) by the officials issuing the license and those performing the marriage ceremony should be made a misdemeanor with appropriate penalty.

I would also suggest that Section 2230 of the Revised Laws, as amended by Act 109 of the Laws of 1907, be amended by adding thereto the following: The judge shall not entertain jurisdiction of the libel until at least twenty days after such personal service shall have been completed; nor shall the judge entertain jurisdiction of the libel when the libellee shall have entered an appearance in the case without such personal service, until at least twenty days after such appearance.

The statute (Sec. 2232, R. L.) should also be amended, requiring evidence in corroboration of the evidence of the libellant as to the ground on which the divorce is sought.

I would further suggest that Sec. 2234, R. L., be amended by adding thereto the following, or words to the same effect: Whenever a libel for a divorce remains undefended, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General and the County Attorney to resist such libel; but no such prosecuting officer shall be employed in or allowed to conduct any suit for a divorce on the part of the libellant in the courts of this Territory; nor shall any such prosecuting officer be allowed to resist a libel for divorce in those cases where the libellee does not appear, if the attorney for the libellant is a partner of such prosecuting officer in the practice of law, or keeps his office with such prosecuting officer, but in all such cases the judge before whom the case is to be heard shall appoint an attorney to resist the libel, who shall be entitled to reasonable compensation therefor to be paid out of the public funds.
